A Smallpox Remedy.

The following statement of a correspondent of the Stockton (Cal.) Heraid has been going the rounds of the papers. An ex-Californian says he has seen it tested with entire success. We reproduce it, there-

"I herewith append a recipe which has been mised, to my knowledge, in hundreds of cases. It will prevent or cure the smallpox, though the putting are filting. When Jenner discovered cowpox in Eugland the world of science huried an avalanche of fame upon his head; but when the most scientific school of medicine in the world—that of Paris—published this recipe as a punacea for smallpox, it passed unheeded. It is as unfailing as fare, and conquers in every instance. It is harmiess when taken by a well person. It will also cure scarlet fever, here it is as I have used it, and cared my enlidered of the scarlet fever; here it is as I have used it to cure smallpox; when learned physicians said the patient must die it cured:—Suiphate of zinc, one grain; loxglove (digitans), one grain; half a teaspoonful of sugar; mix with two tablespoonsful of water; when thoroughly mixed add four ounces of water. Take a spoonful every hour. Ether disease will disappear in tweive hours. For a child smaller doses, according to age. If countres would compet their physicians to use this there would be need of pest houses. If you value advice and experience use this for that terrible disease."

THE ICE FLYERS.

A Lightning Regatta by the Iceboat Beauties of the Hudson-A Mile a Minute-List of the Boats of the Paughkeepsie and New Hamburg Clubs.

POUGHKERPSIE, Dec. 27, 1871. The thaw which has prevailed along the Hudson for three or four days has melted all the snow which fell previous to it, leaving the ice in splendid on for iceboating. For miles a clear, black, glistening surface is visible, and iceboatmen are in ecatacies over the situation, and well they may be, for if cold weather sets in now there will soon be The street of the street of

THE GRANDEST ICEBOAT RACES on the Hadson that has ever been recorded. Year after year improvements have been made in ice-boats until now they have nearly reached perfection. At first these novel craft were of short, dumpy construction, made out of ill-looking timber, rough hewn and roughly put together. Now the skill of the best workmen is brought into play in building them. The old-fashioned iceboat was loaded down with heavy joists, hemlock boards and cordage rigging; now it is skeleton-rigged throughout, with hollow timbers, tapering spars and boom and bowsprit, wire rigging, long, stim runner plank and ash and wainut seat boards. The old-fashioned teeboat did well at fifty miles the hour, while run-is a common occurrence with the new one-ves, a mile and a haif a minute. Poughkeepsie can beat mile and a haif a minute. Poughkeepsie can beat the world in the iceboat business. The Poughkeepsie leeboat Association atone owns thirteen boats, each one costing nearly five hundred dollars—beauties, every one of them, and all provided with the latest improvements. Each one carries two buffato robes and feet muffers; for when you dash along at the rate of a mile a minute, with the wind on the beam on a zero morning, you need to be dressed for the occasion. Henry S. Brost, Hudson Taylor and William C. Arnold.

It was decided

TO HOLD ONE RECETTA THIS WINTER, the prize to be paid for by the association, and none but association members to compete for it.

It was also decided to give individual prizes, inviting all leeboats on the Hudson river to contest for them. A committee was also appointed to INVIER THE GRAND DUKE ALEXIS to Poughdeepsie to participate in an Iceboat excursion up or down the Hudson. It is hardly possible that the Duke can accept the invitation, but should he do so he will go back to Russia with an idea of iceboat speed such as he never had before. It was proposed also should he come to present him with the boat winning the prize in the coming regatta. Eight miles south of here is the

NEW HAMBURG ICEBOAT ASSOCIATION, Irving Grinnell, commodore. The association owns eight boats, as follows:—Flying cloud, qui vive, Phantom, Quicksiep, Vesper, Seud, Whiff and Dalsy. The flag of the club is a crimson swallow-tail ourgee, bisected by a white diagonal stripe containing the initials of the club.

THE EIGHTH AVENUE HOMICIDE.

Investigation Before Coroner Herrman-Al-

Released on Bail. Coroner Herrman yesterday afternoon held an inquest in the case of Edward Carroll, late of 210 West Thirty-seventh street, who was fatally injured last Monday evening in the porter house of James Mc-Cartney, 526 Eighth avenue, by being struck on the head with a club in the nands of the proprietor, as previously reported in the HERALD. Deceased, his brother and several other men were making a disturbance and fighting in McCartney's place, and h was attempting to eject them at the time the fatai blow was struck. Below will be found a synopsis of the evidence elicited and the verdict of the jury.

Richard Carroll, a brother of deceased, living a No. 210 West Thirty-seventh street, was the first examined, and testified that on Monday night he and his brother were invited into McCartney's had a wrangle which resulted in the witness and his friends being ejected; the witness and those with him returned to McCartney's barroom, which is at No. 520 Eighth avenue, and there had another quarrel with the proprietor, who thereupon it; McCartney old not give the party anything to drink, as deceased and Murray were intoxicated; McCartney and deceased caught each other by the coat collars, and McCartney struck deceased with his fist; the witness then laterfered to save his brother, when a friend of McCariney caught and struck him (the witness); deceased at that time the witness, when McCartney followed and struck deceased on the back of the head with a club, ceased fell and was taken home right away. Robert Orr, an officer of the Twentieth precinct, deposed that on Monday evening he was called t McCartney's place and there met the previous wit ness and others standing about; McCartney said a place, that they then were on the walk and he wanted them dispersed; Richard Carroli had blood on his face; he was partially intoxicated.

Charles Murray, of 413 West Thirty-sixth street, drosed that he was so drunk that night he remembers nothing that occurred; does not know of any fight and could not say he was in McCartney's place on Monday night.

Charles Murray, of 413 West Thirty-sixth street, deposed that he was so drunk that night he remembers nothing that occurred; does not know of any fight and could not say he was in McCartney's place on Monday night.

John Ames, of 270 West Thirty-third street, testified that soon after seven o'clock on Monday evening last, while walking up Eighth avenue, he heard the rathing of giass in McCartney's store, and, in company with a Mr. Smith, ran over to see what was the matter; then saw kichard Carroli and a large man lighting; separated them, and while doing so heard a blow, and, looking around, saw deceased lying on the floor near the Eighth avenue window; Mr. Eurnett and another man took deceased home; he walked between them and hung ins head; saw alcCartney with a club in his hand; Richard Carroli soon afterwards went home alone.

Robert Smith, of 43 West Thirty-mafth street, testilled to being at the decendant's place on Monday evening, and assisted in taking Edward Carroli Rome after he had been struck; did not see acCartney strike deceased; the latter on becoming partially sensible said he had been struck, but did not say by whom.

James Dennison, of 113 Third avenue, an intelligent witness, testified that he was in McCartney's place on Monday night, in company with John Fitzpatrick, and cailed for drinks, and Peter Henry drank three times with them; Henry was asked to go into the back room, and at the same time McCartney, and wanted McCartney to settle a dispute between them, but he refused to have anything to do with them; Murray then wanted drinks, but McCartney decimed, as they had enough already; Henry was asked to go into the back room, and at the same time McCartney, and wanted McCartney's to stile a dispute between them, but he refused to have anything to do with them; Murray then wanted drinks, but McCartney should not go, but after a little struggle they were put out; while McCartney's troot, and asked him to go out; deceased interfered and said Murray should not go, but after a little struggle the

to take life."

Register Connolly, who appeared as counsel for the defendant, on the finding of the jury moved for the discharge of his cheat, but the motion was denied by Coroner Herrman, who at the same time remarked that he would release Mr. McCartney in $5,000 ball.

ANOTHER EMBEZZIEMENT CASE.

4 Washington Street Bookkeeper Appropri hie' $150 of His Employers' Funds. John B. Lawrence, of 182 Carlton avenue, Brook lyn, has for several years been in the employ of the firm of George Bain & Co., of 317 Washington street. Ever since his first connection with the firm he has enjoyed the unbounded and most implicit confidence of the gentlemen who compose it, and it was not until yesterday these parties ascertained, to their utter astonishment, that their confidence was being abused. Mr. Lawrence's duties, among other things, was to make the usual deposits for the firm in the Irving National Bank. On the 23d instant he made up the bank account, which consisted of checks, notes, &c., to the amount of $2,780, but instead of depositing that amount he deposited $2,034, having taken from the first mentioned amount a check on the National Broadway Bank, drawn to the order of George Bain & Co., and endorsed by George Bain, for the sum of $150, by George O. Mulford. This check he presented to the paving telier of the Irving National Bank, who, knowing him to be connected with the firm of Bain & Co., cashed it, and he appropriated the same to his own use. When Mr. Bain spoke to Lawrence in regard to the case he acknowledged having done as above related, whereupon Mr. Bain called an officer and had him taken to the Tomos Police Court, where Judge Dowling held him to bail in the sum of $1,000 to answer at the Court of General Sessions. being abused. Mr. Lawrence's duties, among

THE FOURTH AVENUE BAILROAD.

Mismanagement of Its Affairs.

To the Foiros of the Herald:—

The mismanagement of this road has long since become a byword throughout the city. The running of freight cars on the same track with the passenger horse cars has within the last few days of cold and disagreeable weather called down curses upon the whole regime. It is in fact a political machine and run for the benefit of politicians and their followers. The comfort of those who pay their fare on the read in a matter of accordance constituting only. chine and The tor the benefit of politicians and their forlowers. The comfort of those who pay their fare on the road is a matter of secondary consideration only. Among the many outrages perpetrated by its principal officers are upon those who are forced to seek employment thereon as enduciors. Mr. Brown, the Superinselment, whatever of kindly teelings there may be in his nature,
is deprived of the privilege of often doing justice by the men whom he serves. He is reduced to a mere political tool by his emologers, and I extend to him the chartly his position deserves. Conductors receive their appronuments and often have to wait five and six weeks betore they can get a "badge" and a car. The consequence is that in this time men become starved out, and when they do get a car they are occuperate, and often appropriate funds to which they are not entitled. Being fully ware that they will only be retained for a short time they "make hay while the sun shines," thankfull if a month or two will give them a chance to furnish themselves with food and clothing after they are turned off and before they can procure other employment. The receipts of this road, therefore, amount to about one-half what they ought to be.
Mr. Brown's system is all wrong. Conductors should at least be treated like gentlemen until they are proved otherwise, and should be given fair compensation for their services. This would insure to the company full returns for all passengers and give to the conductor the proud satisfaction that he held the position of honor and trust.

My numble belief is that Mr. Brown is not a suitable per son for superintendent, and should be replaced. His father, a politician, obtained his appointment, and his influence
only, I believe, keeps him in his position. CONDUCTOR.

BAD MANAGEMENT.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE BERALD:-Since the removal of the express and way trains running north of Yonkers from the Thirtieth street depot to the Grand Central depot the patrons of the Yonkers special trains have been subjected to much annoyance and inconvenience, caused by the irregular running of the trains. The morning caused by the irregular running of the trains. The morning trains to New York are invariably behind time, and the pasient (?) passengers at the various stations are obliged to wait from ten to thirty minutes for each train. The conductors inform the passengers that they cannot leave Yonkers on time, as there are so many express and way trains stopping and passing Yonkers that the "specuais" are obliged to wait beyond their time. The trains up in the afternoon are often delayed, and the one leaving Thirtleth sircet at 5:15 P. M. frequently does not arrive at the depot (fr.m Yonkers) until 5:20, and then the passengers are burried aboard like eattle, and many obliged to stand, although there are generally empty aris in the yard. Certainly there can be no excuse for such that management, and if the President of the road will remedy these serious drawbacks to railway comfort it will be appreciated by all Yonkers special train passengers.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

The cotton market was lower and quiet.

MONEY STRINGENT BUT RASIER. The money market was stringent throughout the day, and the rates paid by the stock brokers ranged from 7 per cent coin to 3/2 per cent and interest, the latter being equivalent to 52 per cent per annum. The government dealers were supplied at 7 per cent currency to 7 per cent coin. At the close there was a sudden relaxation, and just at three o'clock the rate fell to 7 per cent, but accounts had been made up early and the lenders had the market all to themselves. The banks are losing greenbacks very rapidly by ship-ment to the interior, and are unable, many of them, to make advances even on pledge of gold as col-lateral. During the day $82,797 three per cent certificates were exchanged at the Sub-Treasury for greenbacks, which conversion of interest-bearing into non-interest-bearing reserve shows the extremity of some of these institutions in the present stringency of the money market.

Prime paper is quoted 8 a 12 per cent discount, with a few sales at ten per cent.
FOREIGN EXCHANGE FIRM.

The extravagant terms exacted for carrying gold have induced a large inquiry for foreign exchange, in which an active onsiness was transacted to day, the market remaining firm and steady, the demand being met by a willingness on the part of the leading drawers to sell at current quotations. Brokers amounts supplied the market with some small lots % per cent below the asking rates, which, at the counter, were firm as follows:-Sterling, sixty days commercial, 108% a 108%; do., good to prime bankers', 109 a 109 %; do., short sight, 109 % a 109 %; Paris, ixty days, 5.35 a 5.30; do., short sight, 5.2614 a 5.25; Prussian thalers, 72 a 723; Antwerp, 5.273; a 5.23%; Switzerland, 5.26% a 5.22%; Hamburg, 35% a 36%; Amsterdam, 40% a 40%; Frankfort, 41 a 41%; Bremen, 78% a 79%.

THE GOVERNMENT PURCHASE OF BONDS. The Assistant Trensurer at noon opened proposals for the sale of five-twenties to the government and found tenders of only $273,650 at 108.30 a 108.75. Ited the accepted bonds to $240.550 at 103.30 a 108.49. In view of the stringency in the money market the suggestion is made that Secretary Boutwell should cease his gold sales until his bond purchases can, by the operation of the Sinking Fund law, enable him to return the currency which is now going steadily into the Treasury every week through the inequality of the two operations as at present conducted. The Sinking Fund act allows him to buy about twenty-two million dollars a year. By exercising the powers granted him under it he could alternate from week to week the sale of a million of gold with the purchase of a million of bonds.

GOVERNMENTS STRONG. The government list was strong, with a quiet inquiry for the reinvestment of the January interest. which led to higher prices all around. The Assistant Treasurer commenced the prepayment, without deduction of the January Interest, to-day, the amount disbursed being $2,990,000, of which $340,000 was currency, being the interest on the currency sixes. The following were the closing street prices:-United States currency sixes, 114% a 114%; do. sixes 1881, registered, 113% a 114; do. do., coupon, 117% a 117%; do. five-twenties, registered, May and November, 109% a 110%; do. do., 1862, coupon do., 109% a 109%; do. do., 1864, do. do., 109% a 109%; do. do., 1865, do. do., 111 a 111%; do. do., registered, January and July, 111 a 11114; do. do., 1865, coupon, do., 1141/4 a 1141/4; do. do., 1867, do. do., 115% a 115%; do. do., 1868, do. do., 115% a 115%; do. fives of 1881, funded, registered, 109% a 109%; do. do. do., coupon, 109% a 109%; do. tenforties, registered, 108% a 109 do. do., coupon, 109% a 109%.

Gold was unsettled, between the limits of 108% a 108%. The announcement of the readiness of the Treasury to prepay the January interest occasioned a decline in the forenoon to 108%, from which there was an advance later in the day to 108% on cable reports of a relapse in the condition of the Prince of Wales, followed by a slight yielding in consols, But the enormous expense of carrying gold —as high as % per cent being bid to have balances taken of $21,677,500.

THE "BLACK CROOK" CASE.

Mrs. Van Buskirk Held to Ball in the Sum

of $1,500.

The case of the "Black Crook" ballet girls against the trate Road street boarding house keeper, after some hait dozen adjournments, flually came up at the Tombs Police Court, before Judge Hogan, yesterday afternoon. The counsel for the defence waived an examination, and announced that his client, Mrs. Van Buskirk, was prepared to give ball. The counsel for the prosecution. Mr. William F. Howe, became quite indigannt at this mode of proceedure, and declared that the defence was afraid to have an examination of the case. Considerable forensic highfalutin was indulged in by the counsel on both sides, at the conclusion of which Judge Hogan decided to hold Mrs. Van Buskirk to ball in the sum of $500 in each of the three complaints lodged against ner, and to send the papers to the Grand Jury Jorthwith. After some little delay gentlemen were found willing to give the required ball, which done, the enlire party, consisting of nine ballet girls, Mrs. Van Buskirk and a lady friend, and some half dozen reporters and as many spectators, retired. day afternoon. The counsel for the defence waived
